- d. Termination for Insolvency. If either party becomes insolvent, is unable to pay its debts when due, files for bankruptcy, is subject of involuntary bankruptcy, has a receiver appointed, or has its assets assigned, the other party may terminate the Order immediately upon notice and may cancel any unfulfilled obligations.
- e. Survival. Any terms of the Order which by their nature extend beyond termination or expiration of the Order will remain in effect until fulfilled and will apply to both parties' respective successors and permitted assigns.
- f. CSUK may suspend performance of the Order if Customer fails to pay any sum due or has not cured any material breach under the Agreement, provided that Customer has first been given a reasonable opportunity to correct such default.

A11. CSUK BUSINESS PARTNERS

- a) Where Customer contracts directly with a CSUK Business Partner rather than with CSUK, CSUK is not responsible for the acts, omissions, obligations or representations of the CSUK Business Partner, nor for the functionality or performance of any other products or services that the CSUK Business Partner may supply to Customer. This statement shall not affect Customer's general legal rights outside of any contractual relationships.
- b) Where services are delivered by one or more CSUK Business Partners these Partners maintain the Customer's Data and Service Details. In the event of termination due to cause or insolvency on the part of CSUK it is anticipated that the Customer and the Partner(s) will collaborate to maintain or transfer that service or data. To the extent possible in the circumstances at the time CSUK will provide the Customer with details of the Business Partners to facilitate this process.

A12. GENERAL

- a. Electronic Orders and EDI. Where facilitated under local law, the parties may do business electronically, including order placement and acceptance. No sub-licensing of the Products or Services is permitted except in accordance with these Terms and any special terms agreed in the applicable Transaction Documents.
- c. Force Majeure. Neither party will be liable for performance delays or for non-performance due to causes beyond its reasonable control. In the event such circumstances continue for more than three (3) months, either party may terminate the affected Orders in respect of Products and Services not yet delivered.
- d. Assignment. Customer may not assign, delegate or otherwise transfer all or any part of this Agreement without prior written consent from CSUK, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. CSUK may assign, subcontract or transfer any rights and obligations hereunder to a CSUK Business Partner at any time subject to written notice.
- e. Export and Import. Customer who exports, re-exports, imports, or otherwise transfers Products, technology, or technical data purchased hereunder, assumes responsibility for complying with applicable laws and regulations and for obtaining required export and import authorizations. CSUK may suspend performance under this Agreement: 1) if the Customer is in violation of this section; and 2) to the extent required by applicable export or similar regulations.
- f. Governing Law. Disputes arising from this Agreement will be governed by English law.
- g. Notices. All notices that are required under this Agreement will be in writing and will be considered effective upon receipt.
- h. Entire Agreement. Each Order incorporating these Terms constitutes the entire agreement between CSUK and Customer regarding its subject matter, and supersedes and replaces any previous communications, representations, or agreements, or Customer's additional or inconsistent terms, whether oral or written. In the event any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable the remainder of the Agreement will remain enforceable and unaffected thereby.
- i. Waiver. Neither party's failure to exercise or delay in exercising any of its rights under this Agreement will constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture of those rights.
- j. Order of Precedence. Unless otherwise agreed in the relevant Order, documents will apply in the following descending order of precedence:
1. Transaction Documents consisting of license terms or limited warranty statements delivered or otherwise made available to Customer

- with Products;

- c. Unless otherwise required in the SOW, both parties shall use their reasonable endeavours to perform their respective obligations so as to meet any agreed timetable.

B2. PROJECT MANAGERS

- a. have overall responsibility for managing and coordinating the performance of the party it represents in a prompt and professional manner; and
 - b. meet with the other party's Project Manager at regular intervals to review progress and resolve any issues relating to the Professional Services.
- The Customer's Project Manager will be available at all times when CSUK's personnel are at Customer's premises or will designate an alternate with the same level of authority and project knowledge in the event of unavailability. Either party may change its Project Manager at any time upon giving reasonable written notice.

B3. CHANGES

Requests by Customer and recommendations by CSUK for changes to the Professional Services or Deliverables will become effective on a prospective basis only upon mutual agreement by the parties in writing and are subject to any change management procedures referred to or agreed by the parties in the applicable Statement of Work.

B4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- a. License to CSUK. Customer grants CSUK a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right and license (or sublicense) to use, copy, translate, make derivative works of, modify, make available (communicate), distribute by all means, media and support, display, perform, and transmit all items made available to CSUK and all related Customer's and third parties' intellectual and industrial property rights only to the extent necessary for CSUK to use such items and perform its obligations and exercise its rights under this Agreement.
- b. Deliverables and License to Customer. Neither party will gain by virtue of this Agreement any rights or ownership of copyrights, patents, trade secrets, trademarks or any other intellectual or industrial property rights owned by the other. CSUK will retain exclusive ownership in all Deliverables created hereunder and will own all intellectual and industrial property rights, title and interest in any ideas, concepts, know how, documentation or techniques developed under this Agreement. CSUK hereby grants Customer for the duration of all related rights a non-exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, non-transferable right and license to use, copy, display and translate the Deliverables solely in the country(ies) in which Customer does business and solely for Customer's internal use. To the extent that the Deliverables include Software, Customer's license as set forth above is to the object code version of the Software only unless otherwise agreed in the SOW. CSUK may terminate Customer's license in the Deliverables upon notice for failure to comply with any material terms of this Agreement. In the event of termination of Customer's license, Customer will immediately destroy or return to CSUK the affected Deliverables and all partial or complete copies thereof or provide satisfactory evidence of their destruction to CSUK. Notwithstanding the license grants set forth in this sub-section 4.b., any third-party Software incorporated into any licensed Deliverable will be subject to the license terms applicable to such Software and set forth in the Statement of Work.

B5. FEES

Customer will pay to CSUK the fees specified in the applicable Statement of Work (SOW) or other Transaction Documents. In addition, Customer will be responsible for CSUK's reasonable incidental expenses at CSUK's standard rates unless otherwise stated in the Transaction Documents.

B6. ACCEPTANCE

- a. Acceptance of Professional Services will occur upon CSUK's proper performance of the Professional Services, but this shall not affect Customer's legal rights in relation to any material breach of the Agreement.
- b. For Deliverables requiring acceptance testing, and where an acceptance plan is not included in the SOW, the parties will develop and mutually agree upon an Acceptance Test Plan ("ATP"). In the event that the parties are unable to reach agreement on the ATP within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the applicable Order, each party will have the right to terminate that Order by giving written notice to such effect to the other party. In the event of such termination, CSUK will be entitled to payment for all work performed prior to the date of such termination at the rates specified in the SOW or, if none, at CSUK's standard rates.
- c. CSUK will notify Customer when a Deliverable is ready for acceptance testing and (subject to the provisions of the SOW) such testing will commence within five (5) business days of such notice. Within five (5) business days after completion of testing, Customer will either sign the acceptance report provided by CSUK or, if CSUK was unable to complete the ATP, notify CSUK in writing detailing any failure of the Deliverable to conform to the acceptance criteria in the ATP. Within a reasonable time, CSUK will correct any such non-conformance and redeliver the Deliverable for a repeat of the steps in the ATP process necessary to verify conformance with the ATP. In the event that CSUK is unable to remedy the non-conformance, Customer may, as its sole and exclusive remedy, either:
 - 1. accept the Deliverable without warranty, on an "AS IS" basis, subject to a reasonable price adjustment; or
 - 2. return the affected Deliverable to CSUK and receive a refund of amounts paid to CSUK for such Deliverable.
- d. Deliverables will be deemed accepted when: (i) Customer signs the acceptance report; or (ii) if Customer fails to sign the report or give CSUK written notice of non-conformance within 5 business days from completion of the testing; or (iii) if Customer, prior to either event, uses the Deliverable for productive use.
- e. If acceptance testing is delayed for reasons attributable to Customer or its third-party suppliers, acceptance will be deemed to occur on the 10th business day after written notice given by CSUK that the relevant Deliverable is ready for acceptance testing.
- f. If a Deliverable is provided under the SOW on a time-and-expense basis, all corrections will be performed by CSUK at the specified rates.
- g. The acceptance criteria and procedures referred to in this Agreement will only apply to the Deliverables identified in the SOW. They will not apply to any CSUK Products or Third-Party Products which CSUK may supply or has supplied to Customer, regardless of whether they can be used in connection with the Professional Services or Deliverables. Any refund/return or penalty rights as set forth hereon apply only as provided herein.

B7. WARRANTY

CSUK warrants that the Professional Services shall be performed with reasonable skill and care in accordance with good industry practice.

B8. WARRANTY EXCLUSIONS

CSUK will not be responsible for a breach of warranty that would not have occurred but for:

- a. use of or adaptations to a Deliverable by or on behalf of Customer and which are outside the scope of its intended use or any specific CSUK instructions or authorizations contained in applicable Transaction Documents;
- b. errors or defects in software or hardware with which the Deliverable operates or interfaces, or on which the Deliverable or Professional Services otherwise rely (but excluding CSUK Branded Hardware and Software provided in connection with the Deliverable); or
- c. improper use or operation of a Deliverable by or on behalf of Customer.

B9. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER

Save as otherwise explicitly agreed in any SOW, CSUK does not warrant that Deliverables will be error free or that they will be compatible with present or future products of CSUK or other vendor.

B10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INFRINGEMENT

a. Claims. CSUK will defend or settle third party claims against Customer brought in the country where the Deliverables are provided under this Agreement and arising out of or relating to:

1. CSUK's infringement of any trade secrets, copyrights, trademarks, service marks or trade names alleged to have occurred, related to the Deliverables; or
2. CSUK's knowing infringement of the patent of a third party in connection with the performance of the Professional Services or use of the Deliverables.

Subject to the terms of this section B10, CSUK will pay infringement claim defence costs, CSUK-negotiated settlement amounts, and court-awarded damages.

b. Procedures. The protection provided in this sub-section B10 will apply provided that Customer:

1. promptly notifies CSUK of any matters in respect of which the protection may apply and of which the Customer has knowledge; and
2. cooperates with CSUK in the defence or settlement of the claim.

CSUK will have full opportunity to control the response thereto and the defence thereof, including without limitation any agreement relating to settlement. Customer may participate, at its own expense, in such defence and in any settlement discussions directly or through counsel of its choice.

c. Exclusions. CSUK has no obligation for any claim of infringement arising from:

1. CSUK's compliance with Customer or third-party designs, specifications, instructions, or technical information;
2. modifications to any Deliverables by Customer or a third party (unless acting on CSUK instructions);
3. Customer's non-compliance with the Specifications, the SOW or any applicable Transaction Documents, or
4. Customer's use of Deliverables with products, software, or services that are not CSUK Branded (unless acting on CSUK instructions).

d. Infringement. In the event that an infringement claim regarding a Deliverable appears likely, CSUK may at its sole discretion either:

1. obtain for Customer the right to use the infringing Deliverable;
2. modify the infringing Deliverable so that it is no longer infringing;
3. obtain and substitute a functionally similar deliverable that is not infringing; or
4. if none of the foregoing alternatives are reasonably available, refund a pro-rata portion of the charges paid by Customer for the infringing Deliverable upon return of the same to CSUK.

e. Sole and Exclusive Remedy. This sub-section B10 states CSUK's entire liability for claims of intellectual property infringement related to Deliverables.

B11. AUTHORIZATION TO INSTALL SOFTWARE

During the provision of Professional Services, CSUK may be required to install copies of third-party or CSUK Branded Software and be required to accept license terms accompanying such software ("Shrink-Wrap Terms") on behalf of Customer. Shrink-Wrap Terms may be in electronic format, embedded in the software, or contained within the Software documentation. Customer hereby acknowledges that it is Customer's responsibility to review Shrink-Wrap Terms at the time of installation, and hereby authorizes CSUK to accept for agreed software the Shrink-Wrap Terms on its behalf.

B12. TERMINATION

a. Upon termination of any Order, Customer will pay CSUK for all Professional Services performed and charges and expenses incurred by CSUK up to the date of termination, and Customer will receive all work in progress for which Customer has paid. Should the sum of such amounts be less than any advance payment received by CSUK, CSUK will refund the difference within thirty (30) days of such termination.

b. Upon termination Customer shall return to CSUK (or at CSUK's request destroy) all information and property on any media belonging to or received from CSUK which is in the Customer's possession or control and shall confirm in writing to the Supplier that it has complied in all respects with this obligation. This provision shall not affect Customer's entitlement to retain any Deliverables which have been paid for in accordance with this Agreement.

B13. DEPENDENCIES

a. Customer will comply in a timely manner with the general obligations specified in this Agreement, together with specific Customer obligations described in the relevant Transaction Documents. Customer acknowledges that CSUK's ability to deliver the Professional Services is dependent upon such compliance, as well as the accuracy and completeness of any information and data Customer provides to CSUK.

b. Customer shall in addition provide CSUK with access to, and use of, all information, data, systems, facilities and personnel which are incidental to but reasonably required for the performance of the project or programme described in the SOW.

c. Unless otherwise stated in the SOW, Customer shall be solely responsible for maintaining separate back-up facilities for reconstruction of lost or altered files, data and programs.

B14. SIMILAR SERVICES

Nothing in this Agreement will prohibit CSUK from providing Professional Services similar to those provided hereunder to other Customers, so long as no Customer Confidential Information is used in the provision of such services.

B15. HIRING OF EMPLOYEES

Customer agrees not to solicit, or make offers of employment to, or enter into consultant relationships with, CSUK employees or consultants involved, directly or indirectly, in the performance of this Agreement within a one (1) year period of the termination or expiration of this Agreement. Customer shall not be prevented from hiring any such employee or consultant who responds to a general hiring program conducted in the ordinary course of business and not specifically directed to such CSUK employees or consultants.

B16. PUBLICITY

Neither party will publicize nor disclose to any third party without the consent of the other party either the price or other terms of this Agreement or the fact of its existence and execution, except as may be necessary to comply with other obligations stated in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, CSUK may use Customer's name and identification of this engagement in connection with general lists of Customers and experience.
